For Our Clients

Welcome!

Introductory Information

When first scheduling your mediation with us, we direct you to these introductory information pages. We have created these for five broad types of family or divorce mediation.

These contain suggestions on divorce, paternity or parenting topics we likely may consider in mediation, documents you may wish to gather, optional parenting on-line exercises, and sometimes legal forms you may wish to review in advance of our work. We also provide here a map of our office locations, driving directions and our fees and payment policies.

If you have not received an E-mail with this link (and already accessed these materials), please choose which of the following most characterizes the focus of your Colorado divorce or family mediation with us:

Anticipated Focus of Family Mediation With Us:
Divorce or Legal Separation (w/o minor children)
Divorce or Legal Separation (with minor children)
Paternity-Related (Parents Not Married)
Child Support Modification
Maintenance (Spousal Support) Modification

What Our Clients Say

"Given the emotionally charged subject matter, the environment and atmosphere in our mediation with Divorce Resolutions® felt surprisingly comfortable and safe. It became more like a private business meeting than a cold gathering of adversaries."
